DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

A) The claims recite a product and method.

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

I. Claim I, drawn to claims 16-22, classified in class 53, subclass 467.

II. Claim II, drawn to claims 1-15, classified in class 206, subclass 457.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make another and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be made by a materially different method such as selecting a transparent container, i.e., one that does not obscure any part of one's view of the containers contents in complete contradistinction to page 5, last paragraph of the present disclosure, and making the opaque by applying a marking, color or label.

B) The claims in include combination/sub-combinations.

III. Claims 1-3, 5-9, 16, 17, 21 and 22 are drawn to sub-combinations.

IV. Claims 4, 10-15 and 18-20 are drawn to a combinations.

3. Inventions IV and III are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because a hinged container is not required. The subcombination has separate utility such as a gift package used without the bag or with a different type of container.

4. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

C) The application contains two species.

6. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

1) Figures 1-4

2) Figure 5.

The species are independent or distinct because the hinged box is a different type of packaging medium that does not even appear remotely related to a "pill" container.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1 and 16 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

7. A telephone call was made to Mr. David Thammig on August 22, 2006 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

REPLY BY APPLICANT OR PATENT OWNER TO THIS OFFICE ACTION

8. Applicant is to elect one invention from each of items A, B then C above. For example: if applicant desires the product subcombination species of figures 1-4, then applicant would elect A) Group II, B) Group III and finally C) the species 1. Applicant would then indicate claims to be examined consistent with the election. In the present example applicant would then indicate claims 1-3 and 5-8 are to be examined in accordance with the restriction requirement.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of an invention as outlined herein to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention and species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.
